Calls for Service of Note

Violent Crime:

Assaults – The majority of the assaults investigated during this reporting period involved Intimate Partner Violence and/or violence within a family setting.

Property Crime:

Break and Enter – 5 break and enters were reported during this reporting period. 1 of the break and enters has been solved and an arrest has been made. The other 4 remain on-going and include break and enters to an out-building, 2 construction sites and the landfill.

Fraud – 6 frauds were reported over the 3 months in Brockton. Each of these frauds included online scams or credit card frauds.

Theft Under – 10 theft under $5000 incidents were reported over the 3 months. 2 of the thefts involved stolen bicycles and 3 of the thefts involved shop-lifting. There was 1 occurrence that was determined to be an accidental gas drive-off.

Recovered Stolen Vehicle – On June 23rd our Community Street Crimes Unit investigated a stolen vehicle. As a result, they arrested 2 individuals for being in possession of the stolen vehicle in Brockton and seized a small quantity of drugs.

Drug Crime:

Drug Trafficking – In August our Community Street Crimes Unit investigated an individual in Brockton for trafficking cocaine. An arrest was made and approximately $12,000 of cocaine was seized along with other offence related property which included a vehicle.

Traffic:

Collisions – 1 fatal motor vehicle collision was investigated over the 3 months in Brockton. That investigation remains on-going.

Impaired Driving – 5 impaired drivers were arrested over the 3 month reporting period in Brockton. 1 of the impaired drivers was apprehended while entering a RIDE program. Further, there were 3 warn-range suspensions issued as well.

RIDE Programs – Officers remain dedicated to conducting RIDE programs throughout the year to further support education and enforcement relating to impaired driving. Officers conducted 48 RIDE checks in Brockton over the 3 months.

Traffic Campaigns – It was a busy summer for traffic campaigns. Officers participated in 3 traffic campaigns during the summer months which included Canada Day Safety Week (Canada Day week), Operation Safe Driver and Civic Long Weekend. Each of these campaigns targeted different unsafe driving practices. Officers remained visible and provided education and enforcement to further support safer roads.

Other:

Crime Stoppers – 3 Crime Stoppers tips were received for Brockton during this reporting period.

Foot Patrol – 134 hours of Foot Patrol were dedicated over the 3 month period in Brockton.

MCRT – MCRT remains engaged and supports our detachment and communities very effectively. Unfortunately summer statistics are not yet available but our MCRT worker remains very busy in her role and continues to make a very positive impact in the community.

OPP Cadet Program – In the summer the OPP announced the return of the Cadet Program to the organization. This is a great opportunity for somebody who is interested in policing but feels they are not quite ready to become a Constable. We are very excited that this program has returned and I am hopeful we will have a new Cadet in the coming year.

Detachment Updates:

After 30 years of policing Inspector Krista Miller has retired from the OPP. Retired Inspector Miller had a very positive impact in the South Bruce Detachment area over her 5 years here in the Detachment Commander role. We wish her well in retirement.

Sgt. Marla Barfoot has accepted a promotion to Staff Sergeant, Detachment Manager at the Grey Bruce Detachment. Marla has been a long-serving member of the South Bruce Detachment and her leadership will be missed in South Bruce and I'm confident she will be a great addition to the Grey Bruce Detachment.

Acting Staff Sergeant Henry Thalen has accepted a Temporary Assignment as the interim Operations Manager at the South Bruce Detachment. Henry has been with us since late June and has brought with him a wealth of experience that has supported him in this role.

Sgt. Deb McClure has been identified as the new permanent Staff Sergeant, Detachment Manager here in South Bruce. Deb is coming from In-Service Training and will be a great addition to our team. Her start date is anticipated to be the 27th of November 2023 at which time A/S/Sgt. Thalen will return to his home position in Grey Bruce. I'm looking forward to Deb's arrival and working with her moving forward.
