Dear Mayor Peabody,

I am writing you to raise an important issue impacting provinces, territories and municipalities across Canada that requires your immediate attention and action.

In June 2024, the Standing Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry (AGFO) tabled a report on soil health in Canada that was completed over an 18-month period. This report examined the state of soil health across Canada, the effects of soil pollution and contamination, as well as domestic and international practices in place to protect, preserve and conserve soil.

Our report found that soil is at risk. Canada, along with other countries around the world, are losing substantial amounts of healthy, useable soil that is needed to grow food to feed our nation. In addition, there are over 20 million contaminated sites around the world, and more than 30 per cent of the world's soil is already degraded, meaning it has significantly lost its ability to grow food, hold water or support plants and animals. The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO-UN) estimates that 90 per cent of the world's soil will be degraded by 2050, if something is not done.

Climate change is causing extreme weather events and unpredictable weather that causes soil degradation. Farmers may not have the financial means or resources to use sustainable methods to preserve their soil and agricultural lands full of rich soil are being paved over to build infrastructure and housing. While the agriculture sector faces these issues, there is little being done to ensure that soil is being protected.

If Canada continues down this path and does not prioritize the protection of farmlands and the conservation of soil health, we will find ourselves lacking the agricultural land we need to sustain our ever-growing country. We will lose the ability to not only feed Canadians but the world!

The preservation of Canadian soil requires a whole of government approach. While many recommendations in the report specifically call on action by federal and provincial governments, municipal governments are equally as equipped to assist in this endeavor. With your support, we can work to keep this issue front of mind for all government officials, so that soil protection and conservation is taken seriously and met with meaningful action.

In April 2025, I had the pleasure of presenting our soil report and recommendations to the Township of Amaranth Council in Dufferin County. The response I received from this visit was tremendous, with the Council putting forward a resolution that supports all the recommendations outlined in the AGFO soil report. This initiative pushes us forward in the fight to save our soil and reiterates to all levels of government the urgency of this issue.

Subsequently, the Township of North Wellington Council passed a similar motion of support.

Enclosed, you will find a QR Code to access the AGFO soil report, and copies of the Township of Amaranth and Township of Wellington North resolutions. I implore you to read the report, the 25 recommendations on how to best protect, preserve and conserve our soils, the federal government's response, as well as the municipal resolutions put forward this spring. And hopefully you will consider supporting the resolution and pass a similar one at a future council meeting.

I am committed to continue advocating for soil health in the Red Chamber, and I hope that the agriculture sector has your support in this endeavor. It is important that we work together to ensure we will have the land we need to continue feeding our country now and for years to come.

Sincerely,
