Bruce County Public Library Marks Canadian Library Month and Ontario Public Library Week with Events and a Giveaway

Bruce County, Ontario:

This October, Bruce County Public Library (BCPL) invites everyone to celebrate Canadian Library Month and Ontario Public Library Week with activities and a giveaway that highlight the community connections that public libraries create.

Stop by any branch to share what makes the library special to you on our ‘Why I Love the Library’ displays! Plus, borrow five physical items for a ballot that gives you a chance to win a Kobo Colour eReader.

A highlight of the month is the annual Read Local event, taking place at the Warton Branch on Sunday, October 19 at 2pm. This free, drop in event, kicks off Ontario Public Library Week from October 19th to the 20th. Visitors can meet and connect with a variety of local talent as well as discover their next hidden gem while supporting local authors.

“BCPL prides itself on being a trusted community connector and community sharing place, and Canadian Library Month is the perfect time to celebrate the stories, resources, and connections that make Libraries so special,” said Library Director, Brooke McLean.

About Bruce County Public Library:

Bruce County Public Library is committed to its role as a trusted community connector, digital community facilitator and community sharing place. Consisting of 17 Branches and a Bookmobile BCPL provides access to information, resources and programs throughout Bruce County.

About Bruce County:

Bruce County is an upper-tier municipality in Southwestern Ontario, Canada made up of eight lower-tier municipalities and 77,221 residents. Bruce County is located within the traditional territory of the Saugeen Anishnaabek and holds a government-to-government relationship with the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation and Saugeen First Nation, together as Saugeen Ojibway Nation. The explorers who visit, live, and work here are the dreamers who take roads less travelled and see tried and true as an invitation to try something new. Be an Explorer and call Bruce County home.
