Recommendation:

That the Council of the Municipality of Brockton hereby receives Report Number CAO2025-14 – 2025 Brockton Accomplishments, prepared by Sonya Watson, Chief Administrative Officer and Cally Mann, Municipal Executive Coordinator for information purposes.

Report:

Background:

Each year staff work on a variety of projects, with collaboration and the support of Council, to contribute to the betterment of the community and to the sustainability of Brockton's future.

This report highlights some of the key projects and accomplishments across departments in the Municipality. Every staff member in the Municipality has played a part in contributing to these accomplishments and I am proud of the ongoing leadership of our Senior Management Team and the work, dedication and commitment of all employees.

Analysis:

The attached report is an overview of our various accomplishments through 2025, including some of the following highlights:

- Housing Strategies, studies and incentives to advance a variety of housing types
- Fleet and Infrastructure Renewals
- Expansion of Brockton Volunteer Awards
- Implementation of Strong Mayor Powers
- First Walk of Wenjack Event
- Increase in Parks and Recreation facility usage

- Revitalization of Recreational and Parks amenities
- Maximized childcare spaces at the Brockton Child Care Centre
- Outdoor environment improvements at the Brockton Childcare Centre
- First Mayor’s Budget
- 911 Dispatch transition and Regional Training Offerings
- New Medical Oversight Program for the Fire Department

Brockton is a growing and thriving community and I am pleased to work with a dedicated Council and have a strong team of professionals that work with passion to contribute to the ongoing and future success of building a community people want to “Come Home To.”
