DETACHMENT UPDATES

- Only one Sexual Assault reported in the month of January. It is still under investigation.
- Of the two Assaults in January, one was Domestic related and charges have been laid. The other involved an Assault Police charge.
- The Crimes Against a Person were Criminal Harassment and Threatening investigations.
- There were no Break and Enters reported during this time period.
- The Theft over occurrences involved the theft of a vehicle, an ATV and a Motorized Snow Machine.
- The Frauds involved a cheque fraud, an Identity theft and two telephone fraud attempts. Of note, one of those telephone calls involved a false registration system for Covid vaccinations in which they asked for the person's personal information. The other involved the impersonation of a Tech Company and the caller was provided remote access to the victim's computer. Unfortunately the victim was then defrauded of approximately $20,000.00.
- The Mischiefs consisted of a pushed over Port-a-Potty and a destroyed snowman.
- Of the 17 Motor Vehicle Collisions reported 7 (41%) involved collisions with animals. Two collisions were as a result of Impaired Drivers. Luckily we did not have any Personal Injury collisions this month.
- Motorized Snow Machine patrols have started on our local trails. Over 75 sledders have been checked so far with a few warnings received.
